DUBUISSON FAMILY HISTORY

and Allied Families of TREPAGNIER, KREBS, NICAISE, MORIN, DEDEAUX and CUEVAS

By Mrs. Cheryl S. Castelin
Submitted by Nap Cassibry

Note: This article comprises a chapter of an unpublished manuscript on additional families and is printed with the permission of the author, Mrs. Cheryl S. Castelin.

I must start by thanking Mr. Nap Cassibry for sharing the information in his published Some Dubuisson Records that appeared in the Mississippi Coast Historical and Genealogical Society quarterlies and for the many DUBUISSON records that he sent me. Some of his information was taken from the Saucier Family History, but much of it came from his personal collection of records that he had accumulated over the many years that he has been doing research for his wonderful book, The Ladner Odyssey. Other references such as the Louisiana Historical Quarterlies are so noted.

The first known DUBUISSONS to inhabit the Mississippi Gulf Coast were Eugene DUBUISSON and his family, and some of the children of his brother, Sylvain DUBUISSON. Both were sons of François DUBUISSON, native of Mobile, Alabama and Anne Charite KREBS, native of Pascagoula, Mississippi. Both sons married daughters of Joseph NICAISE and Jeanne DUFILLY. DUBUISSONS can be found in Alabama, Louisiana, and on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. A number of DUBUISSONS still live in the St. Tammany Parish area today and many are buried in the "Old Dubuisson Cemetery" outside of Slidell, Louisiana (take Thompson Road, turn right on Reilly Street to Dubuisson Road to dead end.)

Our direct line goes back to Colonial Louisiana where Etienne (Estienne) Dubuisson and his younger brother, François DUBUISSON DeMONTFERRIER, came from France to work in the M. Paris DUVERNEY Concession in the country of the Bayagoula Indians. The following are bits and pieces taken from various history books which tell their stories. With each account, we are able to piece their lives together so that we can understand who they were, where they came from and what they did. We are descended from the François DUBUISSON DeMONTFERRIER's line.

Quoting from Louisiana Historical Quarterly, vol. 21, page 979, we learn:

"When the Western Company, organized by John Law in 1717, for the purpose of exploiting and developing the resources of French Louisiana, took possession of the colony in the following year, some fifteen large land grants were made to influential and enterprising persons in France who would undertake to establish agricultural settlements on the fertile lands bordering the Mississippi and other streams in the lower part of the colony. One of these grants, located in the country of the Bayagoula Indians, opposite the point where the Bayou Manchac

DUBUISSON LINEAGE

The Dubuisson line begins with the BUREL and TREPAGNIER lines. It is from these lines that the first Dubuisson of record appears in our area.

ETIENNE BUREL (Pierre B + Jeanne Vanier) native of Paris (St. Severin) married in church ceremony 11/10/1682 Cap St. Ignace, Canada to Marguerite Roussel (Jean R + Louise Meni) natives Rouen, France. This couple left Canada and traveled to Rochefort, France - joined the D'Iderville group - and arrived at Mobile, Alabama in 1704 aboard the French vessel "Pelican".

Claude Trepagnier and Jean Trepagnier left Canada with Iberville in 1699 to Rochefort, France and then to Biloxi, Mississippi in 1699. Jean Trepagnier died about 1700 in Biloxi, Mississippi.

Francois Dubuisson b2/25/52 NOLA. married Anne Caridad Krebs daughter of Hugo Ernestus Krebs + M A Chauvin. Their Children were:

Eugene Dubuisson church marriage 1/9/1812 (marriage blessed) to Marie Nicaise, daughter of Joseph Nicaise + Jeanne Dufilly.
Sylvan Dubuisson church blessed marriage 9/23/1812 New Orleans to Heloise Nicaise, sister to Marie Nicaise-see above.
Rafael Dubuisson b9/15/1792 bp New Orleans
Eulalie Regina Dubuisson b2/15/1796 bp New Orleans.

The Dubuisson line that is listed in the Saucier Lineage will now be followed together with such information as can be extracted from the Nicaise lineage, to compile as much information as available on the DUBUISSON line.

NOTE: It must be realized that the information that is shown here was taken from the lineage data available from the Saucier line. That the name Dubuisson appears as it crosses the Saucier line and is, by no means, offered except to be of assistance to those interested in a serious study of this line.

It is noted that the children of Barbe Ursule Trepagnier and Guillaume Dubuisson appear to have all been born in Louisiana, after their marriage which occurred in Mobile, Alabama. For this reason, a search should be made in the church records & museum records at New Orleans & also in the Bay St. Louis, Ms. records that might be available.

It can be reasonably assumed that the marriages of Eugene & Sylvan Dubuisson, sons of Francisco D & Anne Krebs, occurred before their marriages were blessed in 1812. Allowing the usual 20 years from birth to marriage-Francisco b2-25-1752 was probably married circa 1772 - his children would then have been born circa 1772-1780 and probably married circa 1792-1800.

It is therefore reasonable to assume that the descendants, simply due to the apparent ages known, listed below are descendants of Eugene & Sylvan Dubuisson, and can also be assumed that they were sons of Francisco D + Anne Krebs, and from their marriage to sisters, Marie & Heloise Nicaise, respectively.

The problem being, without additional connecting data, is to ascertain just who these children that are listed descend from?

Eugene Dubuisson + Marie Nicaise
Sylvan Dubuisson + Heloise Nicaise
Louis Dubuisson + Bazilice Nicaise

Further, there appears the following females that are also not tied to a parent or brothers or sisters, but undoubtedly are sisters to Eugene, Sylvan and Louis:

Medard Dubuisson + Raymond P Lizana
Mae Dubuisson m cl850 Louie Nicaise b1824 d1881
son of Anatole N + Marie Roulet

then there is another unplaced male, is he a brother to the above?

Octave Dubuisson (civil war veteran) m 1/1/1852
ByStL Pauline Saucier bcl827 d186?. He re-married 5-29-1864 to ?

It is again stressed that this compilation is not to be considered as a family line, but to offer information to serious researchers of Dubuisson lineage.

LOUIS DUBUISSON ?-? married cl841 Bazilice Nicaise b1813 (Jean Baptiste Nicaise, son of Joseph Nicaise + Jeanne Dufilly and Genevieve Ladner daughter of Jean Baptiste Ladner + Francisca Fayard). Bazilice Nicaise was also a sister to Marie & Heloise Nicaise who married Eugene & Sylvan Dubuisson.
